★★★★ Great for Hot Feet, May 26, 2010

This review is from: Cool Off Citrus Ice Towelette, 24-Count \(Misc.\)

My husband gets really uncomfortably, painfully hot and burning feet in the summer. Today he came home and grabbed one of my Cool Off's with the words "Now this is the real test as to whether or not this stuff works." There was complete silence for several minutes. Then he walked out and said, "You know, it really works. The chill just builds and builds, doesn't it?" There's not much you can do for hot feet like this, except soak them in ice water. But Cool Off just gives such a great cooling sensation. I'm sold." Great job, Cool Off!

As I finish typing this, I just heard from the living room... "Yeah...this stuff is great. It just keeps getting better and better as that chill builds. I've tried all kinds of things and not much helps. But this is great. Did I mention this stuff is great?" Gotta love that kind of enthusiasm!

★★★★ I instantly felt cool, June 21, 2010

I was recently at a theme park and I was dying of the heat. Luckily my friend, who I was with, happened to receive some free samples of Cool Off earlier that week. We both tried it and were instantly refreshed and cooled down. It was just what I needed to beat the Texas heat. I liked the product so much that I immediately came to amazon and ordered some more for myself when I got home. This towelette will definitely come in handy this summer. In fact I used it again yesterday after I was done working out and it felt amazing.

★★★★ This works., May 26, 2010

This product works. I babysit for elementary-aged kids and give them COOL OFF towelettes after soccer games or just playing hard on the playground after school. I also run and cycle so COOL OFF wipes are convenient and easy for me to take along if I need a quick refresh. The "cool" lasts about 20 minutes for me, which is great in the Texas heat.
